Armstrong Baseball Moves Into Top 10

Posted: Mar 28, 2011

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Buoyed by their best conference start in nearly 20 years, the Armstrong Atlantic State University baseball squad has moved into the Top 10 in a pair of Division II collegiate baseball polls released today. The Pirates appear at No. 8 in the Collegiate Baseball Top 30 coaches' poll, while also coming in at No. 10 in the CollegeBaseballLineup.com DII poll.

The Pirates are ranked in the Top 10 of the Collegiate Baseball rankings for the first time since Feb. 18, 2008, when Armstrong was ranked No. 10 in the coaches' poll. Armstrong moved up four spots from No. 12 last week and is one of six Peach Belt Conference teams in the rankings as Georgia College is No. 5; this weekend's league opponent for the Pirates, UNC Pembroke, is No. 12, while Francis Marion is No. 16, Columbus State is No. 26 and Georgia Southwestern is tied for No. 30.

Armstrong is coming off of a three-game road league sweep of Montevallo, pushing the Pirates' record this season to 24-5 overall and 8-1 in the Peach Belt. The 8-1 start in the league is the Pirates' best start since the 1992 season - the first season of Peach Belt baseball - when Armstrong went 8-1 en route to an 11-1-1 league mark and a regular season league championship.

In the CollegeBaseballLineup.com poll, the Pirates moved up two spots this week to No. 10. Click here to view the complete College Baseball Lineup DII Top 30 poll.

Armstrong returns to action on Tuesday, March 29, visiting Erskine for a 3:00 p.m. non-conference contest against the Flying Fleet in Due West, S.C.
